

RESPONDS

A leader in the fight against hate, we respond to anti-Semitic incidents and acts of bigotry across the state.

780 RAPID RESPONSES and resolutions to incidents and complaints of anti-Semitism, hate, and discrimination

250 LEADERS FROM SYNAGOGUES and other local community institutions received ADL's security training

UNITES

We foster dialogue and build relationships between diverse religious communities, ethnic groups, and nationalities.

75 MIDDLE SCHOOL and high school students participated in the Annual Interfaith Seder bringing together Jewish, Catholic and Muslim students

ADL conducted trainings on CIVIL RIGHTS, RELIGIOUS FREEDOM AND ADVOCACY with interfaith/intergroup partners from consular staff to local clergy

EDUCATES

Our award-winning educational programs empower students, family members, educators, and community leaders to combat prejudice, bias, bullying and hate.

298,000 STUDENTS were impacted by ADL's anti-bias and bullying prevention programs, A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE Institute® and No Place For Hate®, in 2016

1,200 PRE-COLLEGE AND COLLEGE students were trained to become ambassadors against anti-Semitism and the Boycott, Divestment & Sanctions (BDS) movement on their campuses through the Words to Action program

1,000 LAW ENFORCEMENT officials participated in trainings to learn how to effectively and proactively respond to hate crimes

ADVOCATES

We mobilize communities and community leaders to stand up for the rights of all New Yorkers.

ADL leadership met with 50 LOCAL, STATE AND FEDERAL elected officials to provide expertise on local issues

ADL organized and participated in COMMUNITY-WIDE PROGRAMS AND RALLIES in solidarity with our New York partners

THE ADL NEW YORK REGION, based in New York City with a satellite office in Albany, serves as the go-to experts on hate crimes in the region, and is frequently called upon by local and national media to provide meaningful insight and analysis, which helps educate those reading, watching and listening.

*Numbers on an annual basis as of December 31, 2016

THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE (ADL), one of the nation's premier civil rights/human relations agencies is dedicated since its inception in 1913 "to stop the defamation of the Jewish People and to secure equality, justice and fair treatment for all."

ADL fights anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry, defends democratic ideals and protects civil rights for all.

A LEADER IN THE DEVELOPMENT of materials, programs and services, ADL builds bridges of communication, understanding and respect among diverse groups, carrying out its mission through a network of 27 Regional and Satellite Offices in the United States and an office in Israel.

ADL fights anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry in the U.S. and abroad through information, education, legislation and advocacy. ADL serves as a resource for government, media, law enforcement, educators and the public.

ADL:

- SCRUTINIZES AND EXPOSES extremists and hate groups
- MONITORS hate on the Internet
- PROVIDES expertise on domestic and international terrorism
- PROBES the roots of hatred
- DEVELOPS AND DELIVERS educational programs to fight hatred, bullying, bigotry and discrimination in elementary, middle schools, high schools and college campuses
- FOSTERS interfaith/intergroup relations
- MOBILIZES communities to stand up against bigotry
- DEFENDS the security of Israel and Jews worldwide
- MAINTAINS a comprehensive and up-to-date Web site
- TRAINS FBI and Law Enforcement personnel

ANTI-SEMITISM

In the forefront of the fight against anti-Semitism, ADL challenges American and world leaders and the United Nations to take action against anti-Jewish bigotry and violence.

COMBATING HATE

Leading the efforts to deter and counter hate-motivated crimes, the League drafted model hate crimes legislation in 1981, covering all hate crimes. Forty-five states have since enacted laws based on or similar to the model.

ISRAEL & INTERNATIONAL

ADL monitors and combats global anti-Semitism and extremism, and promotes the security and well-being of Jewish communities around the world. Provides expertise to governments and non-government institutions worldwide.

CIVIL RIGHTS

ADL fights anti-Semitism, combats hate crimes and hate on the Internet, advocates for immigration reform, LGBT rights, women's equality—and much more.

EDUCATION & OUTREACH

ADL works to combat hate through education and training for pre-K through university students, community groups, corporations, civic associations, religious organizations and law enforcement agencies.